Explicación (nivel A1)

El presente simple (present simple) se usa en inglés para hablar de rutinas, hechos generales, horarios o cosas que siempre son verdad.

¿Cuándo se usa?

- Rutinas: I get up at 7. (Me levanto a las 7)
- Hechos: Water boils at 100°C. (El agua hierve a 100°C)
- Horarios: The train leaves at 5. (El tren sale a las 5)
- Gustos: She likes pizza. (A ella le gusta la pizza)

Estructura en afirmativa:

- I / You / We / They + verbo base → I work, You play
- He / She / It + verbo + -s/-es → He works, She watches

❑ Negativa:

- I / You / We / They → don't + verbo base → I don't play
- He / She / It → doesn't + verbo base → He doesn't play

❑ Interrogativa:

- Do + I/you/we/they + verbo? → Do you study?
- Does + he/she/it + verbo? → Does she live in Spain?

Recuerda: - Solo se añade la "-s" en afirmativa con He/She/It.

- En negativa e interrogativa, el verbo va sin "-s" porque el auxiliar ya lo lleva.
