

Adjetivos en inglés – Nivel A1: uso general en la frase y descripciones

Los adjetivos son palabras que describen o dan más información sobre un sustantivo. En inglés, los adjetivos no cambian por género ni por número, y suelen colocarse antes del sustantivo que describen.

Posición del adjetivo en la oración:

- Antes del sustantivo: a tall man, an old house.
- Después del verbo 'to be': She is happy. The car is red.
- Después de verbos de estado como: seem, look, feel, taste: He looks tired. It feels cold.

Uso en descripciones:

Los adjetivos son fundamentales para describir personas, lugares, objetos o situaciones.

En el nivel A1, se suelen usar para:

- Describir apariencia física: tall, short, old, young
- Hablar de personalidad: friendly, nice, quiet, funny
- Describir lugares: big, small, noisy, beautiful
- Hablar de objetos: new, old, heavy, light
- Expresar opiniones: good, bad, boring, interesting

Orden de los adjetivos si se usan varios:

1. Opinión → 2. Tamaño → 3. Edad → 4. Forma → 5. Color → 6. Origen → 7. Material → 8.

Sustantivo

Ejemplo: a beautiful small old Spanish wooden table.
