

Reading Comprehension – A Visit to the Museum

Last Saturday, Sarah and her friend Mike visited the city museum. They wanted to learn about ancient history and modern art. They arrived at 10:00 a.m. and bought their tickets at the entrance. First, they explored the ancient Egypt section with statues, pottery, and old tools. Then, they walked through the modern art gallery where they saw colorful paintings and abstract sculptures. At noon, they had a sandwich and juice at the museum café. In the afternoon, they attended a short movie about the history of the city. Before leaving, Sarah bought a postcard and a small book at the museum shop. They both enjoyed the day and learned many interesting things.
